Want a PhD in Astrophysics?

We are one of the largest astrophysical research centers in Europe, covering every subject from planets, stars and galaxies to cosmology and telescope development.

Successful applicants will be funded for their PhD studies!

Access to the world’s largest telescopes and a stimulating scientific environment provides students with ideal conditions for their PhD research.

Application due date is every November 1st

International Max–Planck Research School on Astrophysics at the University of Munich

IMPRS on Astrophysics
Garching | Munich
Germany

www.imprs-astro.mpg.de